Well the cold weather is here. (big sigh....) So much to cram in during the summer we couldn't do it all. I am exhausted! I believe we had a very nice car show. I am looking forward to everyone else's comments on it. The location seemed to have worked out very well. Please take a look at the pictures. I will be finalizing the Shutterfly pictures in a day or 2. Join us for our fall events too!
